

Video Surveillance Policy

In order to promote the safety of team members, customers, and visitors, as well as the security of facilities, Sprouts may conduct video surveillance of Company premises at any time. Video surveillance cameras are mounted only in common areas within and outside company facilities, such as work areas, sales floors, receiving areas, near time clocks, and storage rooms, and not in private areas such as restrooms and dressing rooms.