

Magellan Healthcare Employee Assistance Program

Legal services

Given the increasing complexity surrounding marriage, children, the elderly, civil and criminal matters, an astonishing 90% of the population have an unmet need for legal services.¹ When faced with legal issues, most people feel stressed because they do not know how to obtain professional advice and they may not be able to afford the services they need or deserve.

Legal Services are part of Magellan Healthcare's Employee Assistance Program (EAP). They can help minimize the stress your employees feel when trying to get support for legal issues and make it affordable to receive sound legal advice.
